

Constitution for the University of Bristol Expeditions Society

1. Name

- a. The name of the Society shall be the University of Bristol Expeditions Society.
- b. The Society shall be recognised by the University of Bristol Students' Union.

2. Aims

2.1

For the purpose of this document, expeditions are defined as adventurous outdoor activities based around physical challenges and exploration, particularly of remote and mountainous regions, such as hill walking, scrambling, climbing and mountaineering.

2.2

- a. To encourage interest and participation in expeditions and their planning in the UK and worldwide.
- b. To facilitate the organisation, financing and equipping of expeditions.
- c. To organise expeditions and expedition training events for the benefit of the Members of the Society.
- d. To acquire and maintain any items, equipment, property or documentation appropriate to the Society's principal aims.
- e. To promote research of remote places, and provide for the dissemination of knowledge and information so found.
- f. To promote the wider expeditions community and encourage participation within this.
- g. To form links with other societies, associations or bodies, with similar or complementary aims to facilitate the achievement of the foregoing.
- h. To arrange social events for members and friends of the Society as the Committee may decide appropriate, and promote joint events with other societies, associations and bodies as the Committee deem fit.
